

"YOU'VE NEVER BEEN SO LOVED"

Family

Family is very important in Life. It doesn't matter what you do, having family makes life more enjoyable. A lot of people only see family as those that share your name or people that you are related to. Being in Fayetteville for going on 8 years and away from relatives we have learned what "family" truly is. We have church people that have stepped up and filled the gap in our family. Being everything from parental figures to brothers and sisters that have allowed us to continue the work here in Fayetteville.

Below is an example of that. This is the type of family that I want Emmitt to grow up with and to learn to expect from the Family of God..

Church

As I have stated the last couple of months, First Heritage is doing well and we are enjoying many blessings. We had our leadership meeting and made plans for outreach and appointed people to facilitate those plans. One of the things that we are stressing that is going to be our theme moving forward is "Making Jesus Known"

We want everything we do to accomplish that goal, regardless if it is a workday at the church or evangelism. We have several people that have stepped up in the last couple of months with a heart to serve, so we are praising God for the added work force, and looking forward to seeing the spirit work in them.

During the month of September we have seen 5 visiting families with repeat guests and our attendance has averaged 35 thru the month.

I am looking forward to sharing more news next month.
