

"YOU'VE NEVER BEEN SO LOVED"

Family, Family, Family Kickin' Satan in the Teeth

November has always been a month I looked forward to my whole life. The 2nd being my birthday, and two of my siblings birthdays also in November, the month was always special. My entire life my mom made sure that we felt loved and special for our special day. It's been almost 13 years since my mom went home to be with the Lord, and one day more since Jenna became my wife. Jan 3rd will be our 13th wedding anniversary and she has taken on the role of making my birthday special ever since. This year she surprised me with AMAZING tickets to go and watch Alabama play in Tuscaloosa. Something I have never done. Even though it was a long nine hour trip home on a Saturday night it was definitely worth it. Also this year we were rewarded with the opportunity to have all of our family (all 15 of them) come and stay with us for thanksgiving. We had to borrow a camper and a hotel room to sleep them all, but it was a great time catching up on life and how the Lord is blessing each one.

November was yet another month that God showed out. Let me start off with saying that I was rewarded again with leading a young man to the Lord. His name was Joseph Allen and I heard him weeping on the side of a building, and was able to buy him a bus ticket to his family in Miami, and since his bus didn't arrive for 12 hours I spent 6 hours ministering to him where the Holy Spirit convicted him of his sins and at 10 at night in a bus terminal Joseph prayed and Asked Jesus into his heart. PTL.

We also hit a record attendance during our Veterans Day service. We had 25 in Sunday School and 43 in worship. We had over 200 years of military service present in our service. Being able to serve the greatest military personnel in the world is such a blessing, but being able to Love on them while serving the one true God is humbling.

We are still asking for prayer and support for our next and hopefully the final location where First Heritage meets.
