

"YOU'VE NEVER BEEN SO LOVED"

Loving Christmas

Like many of you, December was filled with Family and Travel. It wasn't until Emmitt was born that I really began to enjoy all the "stuff" of Christmas. The lights, the parades, the little gift and all of the "holiday cheer" Until 4 years ago, going to see lights was not appealing to me, I mean they are just lights. But there is something about having a kid that makes you want to do anything and go anywhere that will put that look of amazement on their face. At four years old the Christmas has bit Emmitt. He loves Christmas and everything that it brings with all of the lights and glamour, But What he is most excited about is celebrating Jesus. He doesn't know all that Jesus is, but he understands 2 things. Jesus Loves him, and Jesus is the focus through all the chaos of the holidays. Our prayer is that we can continue to cultivate not only the love of the Holiday, but the Love for Our Jesus.

Loving Christ

December was another great month at First Heritage. We maintained 30's in Worship with two new visiting families. With the addition of the new families we have added a teen class to Sunday school and already have 6 in attendance.

As a church we spent a lot of time with each other. We went and seen Christmas lights in the park, Chinese lantern festival, Christmas caroling at shut-ins and our yearly holiday dinner. December was filled with fellowship and festivities. It was also very exciting to have Christmas fall on a Sunday. When many of the surrounding churches were cancelling services or doing an online service, I was more than happy to be in church on Christmas. With special singing and reading the Christmas story, our Christmas worship did exactly what it was supposed to do. Keep the Main thing the Main thing when so many others forget.
