"YOU'VE NEVER BEEN SO LOVED"

Church

As you could see by the pictures above. God has continued to bless First Heritage. We can continue to labor and God continues to give the increase. We have had visitors in nearly every service since Christmas last year. Our Sunday School attendance has doubled, our Worship has tripled and we have several families that are on the precipice of making decisions for Christ.

Next month we have an Easter Egg hunt planned and a VERY big outreach opportunity. We have been granted the opportunity to have a booth at the Fayetteville Dogwood Festival. They are expecting over 250,000 people will attend the event this year. We will have over 1000 wordless Gospel bracelets, 1500 John & Romans along with all sorts of free stuff to start conversations about how the Gospel is Free. Please pray for every opportunity we will have to share the Gospel.

Family

Our Family Continues to be blessed. March 3rd is Jenna's Birthday so we took that opportunity with some decent weather and spent the a couple days at the beach, and also went and seen the U.S.S North Carolina. Sometimes making time to go away for a day or two is difficult but I am thankful to those that continue to remind me of the importance to take time with your family.

Most of you remember that back in November we were in an automobile accident (Not our Fault). In January I started experiencing some pretty serious neck pain and back discomfort. I am finally scheduled to go and see a neurosurgeon in April, so I covet your prayers. It has been 12 years since my previous neck surgery. regardless of the outcome I know that GOD IS GOOD.
