

"YOU'VE NEVER BEEN SO LOVED"

VBS

It is such a blessing to have brothers and sister in Christ, from so far away, come and do hands-on ministry. Brother Kerry Beaty of Loneoak Baptist along with First Baptist of Silver Springs came and put on our FIRST EVER VBS. If I can be honest I was nervous who would attend? It happened that a lot of our church families were away the week we had planned but God does what He always does. He Shows up and Show out! God brought exactly who needed to be there. It was such a blessing to watch Him work.

We are already planning to do a VBS next year and are very excited about the potential. Thank you Brother Kerry for your love and support.

ABA Meeting

The first time that I ever attended a National meeting was when the church that I attended took on a new missionary. I remember I was overwhelmed due to the fact that there were thousands of people, that have come together for the same purpose. It was the first time I understood that our growing country church wasn't alone in the Great Commission. It was that year that I truly understood and fell in Love with our work. This year was memorable for other reasons. As a missionary it is always an honor to stand up and give my 2 minute report at share time, and to see all of you that support the ministry in person and say thanks. This year I had the honor and privilege to preach the Mission Message. It was a long year waiting and anticipating the meeting, But so thankful for the opportunity to preach. My Prayer is that I would get out of the Way and let God be Glorified. I don't think I will ever look at a football the same.
