

"YOU'VE NEVER BEEN SO LOVED"

OVERFLOWED

For those of you that have been following us for the last few months. You have seen our steady increase of Salvations and Baptisms, which means increase of our membership. With the excitement of God working, we have seen a steady increase of visitors. Every Sunday since May, we are bringing in chairs to accommodate our growing worship service. Making this known at our Local assoc. meeting, Eastern Landmark Baptist Church (Rock Hill, SC) felt lead to give us 40 padded interlocking chairs. As one of my members said, "God blessed us with 40 new chairs, and then he OVERFLOWED THEM."

With our attendance averaging more than 40, it meant we still needed to buy more chairs. With donation from New Home BC(Wetumpka) and our VBS, we were able to purchase 25 more chairs, and are looking for God to do what He is Famous for, and overflowing these as-well.

THE JONESES

July was a busy month for the Joneses. 10/10 would definitely recommend. As a family, investing our lives into others, and cultivating friendships are part of the ministry that we enjoy the most. Through the month, having several of the new families from Church in our home has been such a blessing. With Jenna being a School teacher it affords us the opportunity to really tackle minsitry as a couple. In all actuality its our entire family. Emmitt with his BIG personality requires us to be social even at times when we don't want to. Emmitt is a social butterfly and wants to speak to every one. He either is asking them their name, or how their day has been and always ends with "Bye have a blessed day" This forces us to be social and reminds us that every encounter is a potential opportunity for ministry.

July was packed, in a good way, with family, friends and fun. From traveling to see family in Georgia, Church game nights and even going to see a local baseball game, we were thankful for not only the Church's increase but the growth of our family and friends.
