

"YOU'VE NEVER BEEN SO LOVED"

Church

September was another successful month in the ministry. We have seen success through ministering to people in need. we have seen success through witnessing to people and seeing them saved and baptized. We have also seen Success in making Disciples.

Last month we began 1 on 1 Discipleship Training. Currently we have 6 people I meet with every Thursday.

Last month we also began Small Groups on Sunday evenings. The First Small Groups we had there were 15 in attendance and in September we had 18. With the excitement and participation of small groups we are looking to have them more often at multiple locations.

We also had the great privilege of having Everett Ledbetter and His Wife Kim from Shinning Light BC in Topeka Kansas. Hearing the great news of how God is working there was a such a blessing to hear. I am thankful to be Co-Labors with My Brother Everett and look forward to watching God Work.

THE JONESES

In the Jones household, September brought many blessings, for we know that God's goodness prevails always.

However, this September brought some changes. Emmitt embarked on his full-time Kindergarten journey, while I initiated new ministries for the church. Jenna, on the other hand, is diligently working in the Public School System, striving to share the message of Jesus with her students.

Both Jenna and I are currently dealing with health issues, and we're fervently praying for swift resolutions. I'm scheduled for a procedure stemming from a vehicle accident we experienced last November, while Jenna is set to have her gallbladder removed in the first week of October.

On a positive note, Emmitt is in excellent health (Praise the Lord).

We kindly request your prayers as we navigate numerous doctor appointments and surgery, with the hope that they will be successful so we can get back to a since of normalcy.
