

"YOU'VE NEVER BEEN SO LOVED"

Church

Ask and ye shall receive has been a verse that has been repeated in my mind lately. It amazes me how God shows up. In September the outreach we had planned for October was cancelled so we were praying about opportunities. "Ask and ye shall receive" because God opened the door for us to co host an outreach with a several local businesses. We were able to pass out over 700 bottles of water, John and romans along with 500 salvation bracelets and over 100 pounds of candy. The number of significant conversations we were able to have with people in pain and looking for answers were too numerous to count. I have had prayer and several meetings with people that God sent to our tent. Help us pray as we minister to these families.

Living in a military town that trains the greatest military in the world, anytime there is turmoil our guys get ready. Church services have fluctuated in attendance, but we asked for people that are from Fayetteville, and God has sent them. we have 3 new families that have been attending that I pray God would lead to join us and serve with us.

THE JONESES

I am thankful for all of prayers and texts in the last month checking on us. Emmitt is finally over his little cold that he hung on to for a while. Jenna is doing amazing. She didn't realize how bad she has felt in the last 2 years since now she feels so much better. She is back to eating normal people food and exercising. Very thankful that God has continued to take care of her. For me, it has been a year since my automobile accident and I'm still dealing with doctors, lawyers, and insurance companies. But God continues to provide to put the right people at the right time in our lives. "Ask and ye shall receive."
