

"YOU'VE NEVER BEEN SO LOVED"

Church

PRAISE THE LORD. Hallelujah! I wanted to start this report off right and I'm delighted to share the wonderful news that Damien, a teenager, prayed and asked the Lord to save him after Sunday School on the News Year Eve. We Plan to Baptize him next month.

Despite December typically being a month of lower attendance due to holiday travels, God's grace brought numerous visitors, maintaining a congregation of 43 during our Sunday Morning Worship. I know that it's not about numbers, but the increased number of visitors gives us more opportunity to share Christ.

Another amazing event that happened was through the leadership of our Kids Sunday School teachers, we had our first Christmas Program. It was simple but absolutely amazing seeing young people so excited about the Christmas story and it have nothing to do with presents or Santa.

We had Christmas Eve Breakfast, and a terrific Spirit lead service.

We are also planning next month to have an idea night and end January off with a Vision Casting Night Service. Please pray for us as we seek those opportunities to serve our city better.

THE JONESES

December brought more blessings to our family.

We kicked off the month with a unique celebration – Emmitt's Half Birthday on December 1st (for the intriguing backstory, feel free to give me a call). During the festivities, I had the incredible opportunity to lead a young lady named Abby to the Lord at a restaurant, making it a truly memorable experience.

For nearly 30 years, I hadn't seen my older brother due to his incarceration. I haven't seen him since I was 12. However, he recently graduated with a master's in Theology, and we were invited to his graduation, which lead my dad and me to embark on a 43-hour, 2500-mile journey to attend the ceremony.

Despite the long drive, the experience was invaluable. Additionally, I had the privilege of preaching at my sending church on the Sunday of our return – worshipping with my church family in Louisiana is always an uplifting and encouraging experience.
