

"YOU'VE NEVER BEEN SO LOVED"

Church

I am continually awestruck by God's abundant blessings upon our congregation. Through prayer and a willingness to serve, We have been able to become a vessel for God's work.

With Fort Liberty being so close to our church, It gives us a great appreciation for Veterans Day. This year I was privileged to participate in the Cities Veterans Day celebration, where I led a prayer that began the event. During this event, I had the honor of meeting Gold Star families and others who sought prayer for their loved ones. It is truly a blessing to be able to minister to our city and our soldiers in such a meaningful way. The month saw the addition of three new families visiting on Sundays, one of whom has enthusiastically enrolled in one-on-one discipleship training. Thankful and filled with excitement, I am eager to witness the impact of God's work as we actively seek opportunities to serve and minister to the great city of Fayetteville, NC.

THE JONESES

I'm sure like many of you, trying to plan for the holidays can be stressful. Trying to figure out family time, travel and meals can easily become the focus for the holidays. usually that is the case for us, but not this year. This year we said that our focus would be spending quality time together and everyday setting aside a time of prayer and thanksgiving for all that God has blessed us with. I 10/10 recommend taking time to focus on His abundant grace.

Not only was I honored to speak at the Tri-State Bible Conference, I was able to preach right before my brother in law. It is a blessing to be co-labors with friends in the ministry but makes it extra special when it's family.

During Thanksgiving Jenna and I opened our home to families that couldn't make it home for the holidays. We had 2 soldiers and a family join us for our Thanksgiving.

It was a very simple, but very impactful time of year for our family.
