Even though this winter has been very mild weather wise, other than a few days below zero, January has been cold and dark metaphorically, but Jesus still is on the throne and shines His warm light of love.

I had a longtime dear friend of mine choose to leave this world behind. Me, him and his older brother have been friends for over 30 years. In fact, we were in the same fraternity and served in the Marine Corps together during the 1st desert storm. His funeral was a cool rainy day that further enhanced the mood of sadness of someone gone too soon. I was honored to attend his military funeral in Shreveport on Jan 12. I was also honored to speak to close family and friends at a service afterwards. I assured them that David and I had several “intimate” talks about our faith and belief in Jesus as THE savior and ultimate answer to this world’s problems. Although his passing was sad and still many questions left unanswered, I told them I am 100% confident David is with his savior. Please continue to pray for the DePingre family as these next few months will be especially hard as the reality sets in.

A few months ago, I spoke of a gentleman (Taylor) I met at the gym who wanted to start a Bible study. Well, after I spoke of him, I did not see him for almost a month. I saw him at the gym the other day and asked where he had been. He is as CO state trooper, and come to find out, he has been assigned to the governor’s personal detail. He goes everywhere the governor goes both at home and abroad. I told him I would love to be able to present the Gospel to him or any of his entourage that would listen and asked if he would make that happen. He told me he has had the same burden but he is prevented in his current position BUT there are always opportunities where leaders of faith are invited to speak. He said he would throw my name in the hat. He said his job requires a lot of away time, but he would keep in touch. Please pray God will use this relationship with Taylor to have an “in” to spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the Governor and government of CO, the state definitely needs it!

I have also been dealing with issues of severe health with my mother. She has been in and out of the hospital the last few years, but she is now to the point she needs 24 hour care. We are having to deal with her insurance company saying she needs to be discharged from the hospital because she is only allowed to be in so many consecutive days. The doctor is refusing to release her to go home, only to a facility that has care she needs. The problem is that her insurance states there are only two long term facilities that will accept her, but One company says she is on too much oxygen and the other says she is not on enough oxygen. My sister and I have to the point where there are no answers and I cannot accept that! I called her state representative, and she stated it was unacceptable and now the Louisiana Department of health is involved. They have stated the ball has been dropped several time in my mother’s care and they were filing a formal complaint. They are scheduling a hearing with the board of the Hospital and the board of directors with the insurance company. We do not have a date yet, but the Rep told me my mother would NOT be discharged from the hospital until this issue is resolved. Please continue to pray for God’s guidance for my sister and I regarding the proceedings and also the care givers for my mother.
