Ministry

Our first monthly meeting in the park was cancelled for the month of April due to bad weather. We are planning the next one the first weekend in June. We had discussed doing one in May but a lot of people had graduations and end of school year activities.

In June, we will also start having youth Bible studies twice a month. We will be doing one for girls only with my wife leading then the other will be boys and girls. My daughter said the girls really wanted to do a Bible study designed for women but also wanted to do one with the boys (naturally!) so that is why we decided to split it up. We have 5 girls that have told my daughter they will be there and two of them have boyfriends.

I did meet with the veterans organization about my idea of getting wheelchairs to those in need. I left with a lot of information and naturally, found out there would be a lot of red tape I would have to go through. We are still talking about the idea, and other ways I may be able to help, including volunteering at the outpatient clinic.

We met a family on our nightly walk last week who just moved here from TX. We had a lot in common including being veterans and our love of Jeeps. He has invited me on a trail ride next time he goes and he also told me he would love to help me with building my jeep. I told them we were doing Bible studies in our home and they both said they had heard of people doing that and it sounded a little "different" to them. They said they would be interested in checking it out sometime. We are planning to have them over for dinner soon!

The month of may is already looking busy. We will be in CA the last week of May to see our son Dalton graduate with his associates degree from Fullerton Junior College. He has several offers to continue his education at a 4 year college while playing football. Please pray for him in his decision.
