Survey Results

We recently conducted a survey with as many friends and acquaintances as we could. The questions were simple, but the results very telling!

There were 2 questions:

1. If you have ever had been to one of our services, what did you like and dislike about it?
2. If you have never attended, what is keeping you from doing so?

For those who answered they had attended, they liked the content and how it was made relatable to their everyday lives BUT they didn't like the intimacy of coming into our home, especially the first time.

For those who had never come, it was almost the identical answer. They stated that coming to a church meeting in a building is very intimidating and nerve wracking, especially the first time. Coming to a service in your home for the first time would be MUCH worse.

It seems the pendulum of small cell groups in homes has taken a swing to more of a hybrid model; Worship in a public setting THEN in homes. They still want to know "where is your church building?"

We have been praying about this, and it looks as though God has answered our prayers. Bro James Taylor is in the process of leasing a building in the middle of Longmont. The building is almost halfway between him and us. He has offered to us use of the building any time we want!

We are planning on doing one or maybe two services a month there to start. This will give people a chance to worship in a public setting with us and hopefully become more comfortable and open to in home Bible studies.

We also plan on combining worship services ever month or quarter just for fellowship and encouragement.
