"YOU'VE NEVER BEEN SO LOVED"

Church

August saw a significant increase in attendance, with a steady flow of both visitors and return visitors. The enthusiasm and warmth of our Church living out our motto of "You've never been so loved" has been the key factors in drawing people back. Also as School is starting most families are back from their vacations that is also very exciting.

We are excited to report that I individual made the decision to accept Christ this month. They are eagerly awaiting baptism, and we are working with them to prepare for this important step in their faith journey. There are several more that I have salvation conversations with, pray with me as God deals with them.

Looking ahead, we are actively planning a number of outreach opportunities for the fall. These initiatives will focus on connecting with our community, sharing the love of Christ, and inviting more people to join us in fellowship. We are excited about the possibilities and expect God to move powerfully in the coming months. Currently we have some mens and Ladies events and a Fall festival Planned.

In summary, August has been a month of growth and preparation, and we are excited to see what God has in store for us as we move forward into the fall season.

THE JONESES

This season has been full of change for our family, and we're thankful for how God continues to open doors. Jenna recently started a new job as a media specialist in the county at another school, a position we know God made possible. She's excited about this opportunity and settling into her role, knowing it's exactly where she's meant to be right now.

Emmitt is thriving, as always. He's started 1st grade at a new school, and it's been a great transition. He's the main character in his story, navigating this new chapter with confidence and curiosity. We're so proud of how well he's doing academically and socially. In addition to school, he's also starting flag football soon, and we can't wait to see him out on the field.

We're continually grateful for the ways God is guiding and blessing our family, even through the challenges. His hand is evident in each step, and we're trusting Him for what's next.
