

"YOU'VE NEVER BEEN SO LOVED"

Church

Greetings, From Fayetteville, Nc.

We are thrilled to share that God has been moving powerfully in our congregation this past month. We've had the incredible joy of seeing someone accept Christ as their Savior every single week! We are now eagerly preparing for their baptisms and celebrating the transformation God is working in their lives.

In addition to spiritual growth, we've also been making some exciting physical changes to our sanctuary. We're rearranging the space to create a more open and welcoming feel. We recently installed new carpet and are building a wall to better define the sanctuary area. Our hope is that these changes will help make our storefront location more inviting so that more people can come in and hear about Jesus.

We are blessed to see our attendance on the rise! Our adult Sunday School and Wednesday night Bible studies are growing, with 25 adults regularly attending. It's a blessing to see our church family growing and deepening in faith together.

We also want to take a moment to express our gratitude for the calls and texts we received about our safety during the hurricane. Thankfully, our area was not nearly as affected as the western part of the state. In response, our church is partnering with Landmark in Swannanoa, NC, an area that was devastated, to supply much-needed items as the people there recover. Please join us in praying for those affected.

Thank you for your continued prayers and support.

As a preacher friend of mine always says "I look forward to seeing you, here, there or in the air."

I am Michael P Jones and I approve this message.
