Community Outreach

A few weeks ago, I overheard my daughter and her friend talking about how and where they were going to fulfill their required semester community service hours for national honor society. I asked them if they would be interested in volunteering through the church, and they loved the idea but they had to get school approval. Since then, I have met with the NHS sponsor and gained approval. I have met with the students who are interested, and they have come up with several ideas of ways they want to volunteer. One suggestion was to spend a Saturday cleaning up an old cemetery. The other suggestion was to supply the many homeless we have in the area with coats, blankets and hygiene kits for the cold winter months. To make it more fun, my wife told them that they could all go shopping with her to buy all the supplies for the hygiene kits and then come back to the house and assemble them. They loved the idea and think it is going to be so much fun!

We have had many people ask about our holiday party we used to do before covid. We are planning on starting that tradition back this year! Many who have attended in the past said they are excited about reuniting with people they haven't seen in a few years and we have several new people who have heard about how much fun the parties were.

Our in person attendance has remained steady and our zoom attendance has been picking up. As I have always said, zoom is not preferred over in person but is better than nothing. I am able to present the Word of God to some who would otherwise never hear it.
