

"YOU'VE NEVER BEEN SO LOVED"

Church

November was a month of blessings for First Heritage Baptist Church as we celebrated two salvations and one baptism. These are the moments that remind us why we remain steadfast in sharing the Gospel and discipling others. Our attendance remained steady, with an average of 45 in worship and 30 in Sunday school. These numbers reflect a committed core of believers eager to grow in their walk with Christ. The Sad truth is that we have 3 main families that will be leaving us next year before the summer. We are doing our best to prepare them and their families to leave us and to find another church of like faith to serve as faithfully as they have here.

Youth Ministry

We wrapped up the year's teen activities with an exciting outing to the park, where we played volleyball and embarked on a 5-mile nature hike. We had 21 teens who enjoyed fellowship and fun, but the highlight of the day was when a young teen girl accepted Christ as her Savior. It was a powerful reminder of the impact of investing in the next generation. Even tho I was battling pneumonia and didn't feel like being there. God proved his faithfulness, and with Gods creation in the backdrop he made Emery brand new.

Thanksgiving Fellowship

Thanksgiving was a heartwarming time as many of our church members gathered for a shared meal. Our church also stepped up to care for military families who stayed home for the holiday, ensuring they felt loved and supported. This is the part of ministry that our Church does so well. I call it the ministry of Filling the Gap. What ever part of your family is missing do to travel or military moves, we as a church come in and Fill the Gap.

Family

On a personal note, November was extra special as I celebrated my 40th birthday on the 2nd. The church surprised me with a huge lunch—so huge we filled the restaurant! My heart was overflowing with gratitude for such an outpouring of love from my church family.

To top it off, Jenna surprised me with tickets to the Alabama vs. LSU game. (ROLL TIDE!) It was an incredible experience and the perfect cap to a month filled with God's goodness.

As we close the month, we are thankful for all God has done in and through First Heritage Baptist Church.

"Thanks be unto God for His unspeakable gift!" – 2 Corinthians 9:15
