Ministry Opportunity

While at the gym last week, I was speaking to the owner, Edger, about adding my son onto my account for the holidays when he is home. I have always known Edger to be the guy everyone loves to talk to and go to for advice. Rarely ever do I walk by his office and not see someone in there talking to him. He has even made a statement to me once that bartenders make the best therapists at the clubs and owners make the best therapists at the gyms. During our conversation, I told him I was in the process of getting a space in town to be able to minister out of and if he would like to refer anyone over to me now since most everyone there knows me, I would be glad to help him out. His reply was unexpected. He said Do they have to come to you? A lot of these guys and gals do not have time to schedule meetings or they need to talk to someone right then. I told him absolutely; I can help. Most of the members of this gym are ex-military, law enforcement or firefighters.

I met with the local VA clinic last week concerning volunteering. This was an initial meeting to see what my interests were in volunteering and see what areas I would be interested in. I was told it may be after the first of the year (imagine that!), but someone would be contacting me to go over potential matches and opening.

Please pray that we can find a place to have our annual Christmas party this year. The Taylors do have a lease in hand on a store front in town that I will be using to some degree, but it still needs cosmetic work and cleanup before being ready. I am excited about the opportunities this will afford Pathway.
