

"YOU'VE NEVER BEEN SO LOVED"

Church

December was a month filled with the joy and beauty of the Christmas season. The church was alive with lights and festive decorations as we celebrated the birth of our Savior. One of the highlights of the month was our Kids' Christmas Program. Watching the practices and seeing young people step up and take the lead was an incredible blessing. Their enthusiasm and willingness to serve reminded us of the importance of investing in the next generation. The program itself was a beautiful celebration of Christ's birth and a reminder of the joy that comes from childlike faith.

While the holiday spirit was strong, attendance dipped as many in our congregation traveled home or took leave for the holidays. Worship attendance averaged in the upper 20s, and our Sunday school and Wednesday night gatherings saw a steady group of teens. Though smaller in number, we remained focused on Christ and the true meaning of His coming.

As a family, we absolutely love the Christmas season. Decorating and seeing the lights always brings us joy. This year, we had the chance to spend quality time together. We traveled to see Jenna's family, visited my dad, and made a memorable trip to Stone Mountain to ring in the New Year. This time was extra special as we celebrated our 16th wedding anniversary during this season. God's goodness to our family was evident in the moments we shared and the memories we created.

All in all, December was a good month. From the joy of the Kids' Christmas Program to the blessings of family time, we were reminded of God's faithfulness and the hope that comes through Christ. We look forward to what God has in store for First Heritage Baptist Church in the coming months and next year.
