

"YOU'VE NEVER BEEN SO LOVED"

February Excitement

February has been an encouraging month. Our average Sunday attendance has remained steady at around 50. We were blessed to welcome three visiting families who have continued to attend worship regularly. It's been a joy to see new faces become familiar ones.

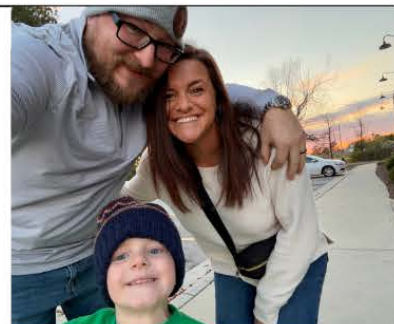

Sunday School attendance has been strong and continues to grow—something we're truly thankful for. However, we've seen a noticeable drop in our Wednesday night Bible study numbers. We're praying and considering ways to re-engage our midweek crowd and encourage consistent discipleship.

One of the greatest joys this month has been seeing the Lord work in hearts. We had three professions of faith and one baptism. Two of those who came to faith were teenage girls I had the privilege of personally leading to Christ. God is good.

Looking ahead, we're still planning some updates to our sanctuary. The goal is to create a more welcoming environment and better separate the worship space from the rest of the building. We hope these changes will help reduce distractions and allow people to focus more fully on worship.
