Unofficial Chaplain part 2

As I had mentioned in my last letter, I have become the unofficial chaplain of my daughter's travel volleyball club. We had our next tournament in Omaha, NE the middle of February and I was able to hold a morning Bible study with most of the parents in attendance and the team. We had a total of 37 people present for breakfast and devotional that morning. My scripture reference was Ecclesiastes 3 where I talked about everything is according to God's timing and has a purpose and it was no accident everyone was there at that time. We talked about everyone having a divine purpose and it all started with having a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. I had several people tell me afterwards it went better than they thought it would, to which I replied I hope that is a good thing! I asked what their expectation was and they said they were expecting it to be "churchy" but it was just normal. I told them I will take it as a compliment. I also planted the seed that Easter is coming soon and we would love to have them worship with us on that special morning if they don't already have plans elsewhere.

Please keep this group in your prayers as we have invested a lot of time and effort into making them feel like they are loved and welcome. They are not perfect and still do things you would expect lost people to do. Patience and love and guidance is what they need in order to introduce them to Jesus!
