

"YOU'VE NEVER BEEN SO LOVED"

Church

What a month April has been! I wanted to take a moment to thank you for your faithful prayers and support as we continue the work here in Fayetteville.

God continues to bless our church family. Our Sunday morning attendance has been consistently in the 50s, and we are excited to see new families attending nearly every service. There's a growing hunger for the Word, and it's encouraging to see the Lord building His church, one soul at a time.

During spring break, Jenna, Emmitt, and I took a few days to catch our breath with a short trip to the beach—our happy place. It gave us the recharge we needed before stepping into the busy Easter season and our largest outreach event of the year.

This year's Dogwood Festival outreach was our most impactful yet. By God's grace:

- 700 John & Romans Bibles were handed out
- 1,200 pairs of salvation-color sunglasses were distributed
- We prayed with over 200 people,
- And had gospel-centered conversations with over 500 individuals.

It was a powerful reminder that the fields are still white unto harvest!

We had a full team of volunteers from our church engaging with the community, answering questions, praying with hurting hearts, and boldly sharing the love of Christ. Several people expressed a desire to visit our church—and some already have.

We're looking forward to what God has in store next. Please continue to pray with us:

- For fruit to remain from the Dogwood outreach
- For the discipleship of new believers and growing families
- For wisdom as we look to expand our children's and youth ministries
- And for God to continue raising up laborers in this military community

From our family to yours—thank you again for your partnership in the gospel. Your encouragement and generosity allow us to keep going strong in this mission field.

Jenna, Emmitt and Mike
