

"YOU'VE NEVER BEEN SO LOVED"

Church

This past month has been a season of encouragement and here at First Heritage. We are praising God for His continued work in our ministry.

- Several new families have begun attending our services. Two families have returned to regular attendance after the summer, and two teenagers have even brought their families along with them. What a joy to see the Lord working through the next generation!
- We rejoice that Sister Joann followed the Lord in baptism, pray for her as she has already begun the discipleship process.

Answered Prayer

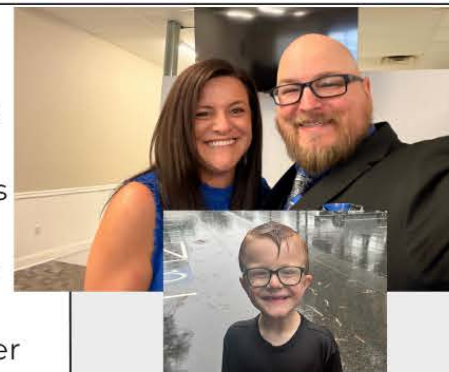

For over ten years, I have been praying for an opportunity to be involved in our local school system. This past month, God answered that prayer! I was invited to read a book to 4th and 5th grade boys. While the reading itself was not directly Christ-centered, God was glorified through the open door. Even more, I've already been invited back for future opportunities. Truly, His timing is perfect, and we give Him praise for this long-awaited answer!

Prayer Needs:

We ask for your continued prayers in several areas:

- Equipment Need: A few months ago, our building was struck by lightning, and we lost the camera we used for live streaming our services. If your church has an unused camera or would like to help us purchase a new one, this is a pressing need for our ministry.
- Facility Updates: The wall in our sanctuary is nearing completion, and we hope to have our new church sign installed before October. Pray with us that these improvements will serve as a testimony to our community of God's faithfulness and our longevity.

God has been faithful in providing growth, opportunities, and answered prayer. As we press forward into the fall season, we are trusting Him for continued fruit and asking Him to use our church to reach Fayetteville with the Gospel.
