

"YOU'VE NEVER BEEN SO LOVED"

Church

December was a joyful and meaningful month as we celebrated the birth of our Savior together as a church family.

We held our first Candlelight Christmas Service, and the house was full. It was a very special evening as our youth led much of the service by singing, reading the Christmas story, and helping share the light by lighting each person's candle. Watching the light spread throughout the room was a powerful reminder that the message of Christ continues to shine in a dark world. The Christmas story truly never gets old or boring—it remains as powerful and life-changing today as it has always been.

We also enjoyed our church's annual holiday meal. This year we gathered at the Kimmichs' for a time of fellowship and, as expected, enjoyed more food than any one person probably should. These times together are incredibly valuable. Fellowship is sweet, and it provides opportunities to slow down, build relationships, and truly get to know one another beyond Sunday services.

THE JONESES

On a personal note, December was also a very special month for our family. Emmitt had his very first Christmas piano recital, and we are thankful for his teacher and for his continued excitement and joy in learning to play. For Christmas, we were able to give him a new electric piano, which has allowed him to continue practicing and growing at home.

Jenna's mom was able to come stay with Emmitt, which allowed Jenna and me to get away for our 17th wedding anniversary

. We are very thankful for that time together. While the beach may not be the most popular place to visit in the winter, it is a special place for us no matter the season. For us it is a place to rest, reflect, and thank God for His faithfulness in our marriage.

We were also able to travel to Georgia to spend Christmas with our family. Time with family is always a blessing, and we are grateful for those moments together.
