

Church

Hey everyone,

I just wanted to take a few minutes and give you an update on what God has been doing here in Fayetteville this past month. April was full, busy, tiring at times but honestly, really exciting to watch.

We Went After It this month.

The biggest thing this month was the Dogwood Festival, and I can honestly say our people showed up.

We had 26 folks out there all day, just loving people and sharing Jesus. And God really opened doors.

Here's just a snapshot of what happened:

We gave out over 1,200 "Little Jesus" figures.

Close to 1,000 salvation bracelets and cards

Over 400 John & Romans

Got to pray with more than 50 people right there on the spot

Handed out 400+ invites to church.

It wasn't just numbers it was conversations, prayers, people opening up, people hurting... and our church stepping right into it.

We stayed out there until the rain came in and shut us down.

Honestly, it felt like one of those moments where you step back and go, "Only God could do that."

What encouraged me the most we didn't have to wait long to see results.

We had visitors show up the very next Sunday.

That's always exciting, but more than that, it's a reminder that when we go, God works. Now we're just trying to be faithful to follow up, build relationships, and trust Him with the rest.

We wrapped up the month with Family Fun Sunday, and it was exactly what we hoped for people laughing, kids running around, guests feeling welcomed, and the gospel being clearly preached. That's always the goal. Everything we do points to that
